SunLine Participates in the 7th Annual Fill the Bus Food Drive

(Thousand Palms, CA) March 24, 2014 • For seven years, SunLine has sponsored the “FILL THE BUS” food drive every holiday season. Hunger in the Valley happens year round and after speaking with recipients of past food drives, they were clear that there is still a great need for food during the summer.

So SunLine and the Palm Desert Rotary have teamed up to help non-profit charity organizations including Food Now and the Galilee Center.

Indio Councilmember and Chairman of SunLine’s Board of Directors, Glenn Miller says, “This is a perfect time for the community to help struggling families. If you are a seasonal resident, it’s a chance to clean out your pantry before heading back home. If you’re a full-time Valley resident, it’s just a chance to give back to the community.” SunLine General Manager, Lauren Skiver, says, “As the Agency’s focus on the community goes beyond providing public transit, we again ask our generous part-time and full-time residents to assist those less fortunate.”

Residents may donate non-perishable food items at one of our drop sites located throughout the Valley:
